

IMMEDIATE NEEDS OF PREVIOUSLY INCARCERATED

- Safe housing
- Adequate food
- Clothing and personal care items
- Transportation
- A church home
- Emotional and spiritual support
- Proper identification
- Access to a phone
- Medical and dental care; psychiatric care
- Alcohol or substance-abuse treatment and rehabilitation

ONGOING NEEDS OF PREVIOUSLY INCARCERATED

- Life-skills training and preparation
- Employment
- Income to cover ongoing expenses
- Further educational and/or vocational training
- Professional services (attorney, accountant, counselor, etc.)
- Mentoring and spiritual guidance/support
- Counseling for family and marital problems
- Strong friendships with other believers of faith traditions

PROBATION AND PAROLE REQUIREMENTS

All convicted offenders must comply with the court-ordered special conditions of their probation or parole. These rules may include:

- Reporting in person to probation or parole offices
- Participating in intensive supervision programs
- Not leaving the designated city/state without permission
- Finding and maintaining regular employment
- Not changing residence or employment without permission
- Not using drugs or alcohol; not entering drinking establishments
- Not possessing firearms or other dangerous weapons
- Not associating with persons who have criminal records
- Submitting to urinalysis or blood testing when instructed
- Paying supervision fees
- Obeying all state and local laws

OTHER POSSIBLE REQUIREMENTS

The former prisoner's specific terms of probation or parole are provided in writing at their first visit with their probation or parole officer. Other conditions of probation and parole may include:

- Conforming to electronic monitoring and special curfews
- Participating in transitional housing programs
- Paying restitution to victims in a timely manner
- Attending anger management courses
- Following court-ordered alcohol and drug counseling
- Following court-ordered mental health counseling and treatment
- Staying away from the victim(s) of their crime(s), particularly in cases that involved domestic violence, stalking, harassment, or assault
- Registering as a sex offender; obeying all restrictions for sex offenders

Imam Omar A. Shakir
Masjid Bilal Ibn Rabah of San Antonio
P.O. Box 796116, San Antonio, TX 78245
210/519-6610
MasjidBilal2000@ATT.net
<http://www.mbrsa.org>
<https://www.facebook.com/masjidalbilal.sanantonio>

Imam Asim Shareef
East Austin Community of Al-Islam
P.O. Box 14931 Austin, TX 78761
512/222-8397
Info@EACIslam.org
<http://www.eacislam.org>
<https://www.facebook.com/eacislam>